DIRECTIVES:

1. Kindly note that the matters will be heard in an open court at 10h00.
2. Legal Practitioners need not to introduce themselves to the Judge in Chambers and may introduce themselves in court when their matter is called.
3. Settlements, removals and postponements will be called first. Thereafter, matters will be heard in order of seniority of the Legal A Practitioner arguing the matter. In order for the Court to consider the matter, parties should ensure that the pleadings, Practice Note and Draft Court Order are uploaded onto Caselines. The Draft Court Order should set out the date of hearing, Judge's name (i.e. NKOSI

AJ) and name and details of Counsel / Practitioner and those of the instructing attorney should appear at the end of the draft.

4. Parties should ensure compliance with the relevant latest Directives pertaining to Special Interlocutory Court.
5. Practitioners must provide the Court with one hard copy of the draft order, properly completed, and same should be uploaded onto Caselines.
6. A list of enrolled matters, with the Judge's comments on each, will be distributed at the latest the day before the hearing of the matter. Legal practitioners are required to consider such comments before calling the matter.
7. Although the list of enrolled matters will be circulated it will not necessarily contain the Judge's comments. That does not mean that the matters are without queries. Legal practitioners are to ensure that their matters comply with accepted practises and requirements. In this regard Practitioners must ensure compliance with inter alia the following:
 1. That the appropriate scale for costs are requested;
 2. That where a mandamus is requested to enforce a decision on an RAF4 that the relief sought complies with the views expressed in Makuapane v Road Accident Fund (9077/2022) [2023] ZAGPPHC 15 (19 January 2023)
 3. That where punitive costs orders are sought that proper motivation for such an order exist;
 4. Where an order is sought to declare a respondent delinquent by reason of its default in failing to engage in mediation , that the order makes provision for stating the failure, ; that the respondent is granted an opportunity to comply within 10 days and that the Applicant shall be excused from engaging in mediation and be forthwith entitled to set down the case on the appropriate default judgment roll to seek - and then state relief to be sought in the default court. Finally, the order should make provision for costs on the appropriate scale.
